

Detroit man sentenced in drug case

WARREN – A Detroit man received an indefinite prison sentence for drug possession convictions connected to a May 2022 arrest in Trumbull County.

Robert F. Fuqua, 40, was sentenced to a term of three to four and a half years by Judge Cynthia Rice in Trumbull County Common Pleas Court on Monday. On May 1, Fuqua had pleaded guilty to charges of aggravated possession of drugs and possession of cocaine after suspected drugs were found May 4, 2022 during a traffic stop by the Ohio State Highway Patrol.

Fuqua is subject to a two to four year term of post-release control by prison officials after his release from prison.
